

STAT

Miss deRosia, Personnel Aide in CIA Since 1948

Miss Mary C. deRosia, 43, a Central Intelligence Agency employe since 1948, died of a heart attack Monday in Newark, N. J., while changing planes en route to Watertown, N. Y.

Miss deRosia lived at 2721 South Uhle street, Arlington.

She attended the School of Commerce in Watertown and worked for the Jefferson County (N. Y.) Farm Bureau before coming to Washington in 1942. She attended George Washington University and worked for the War Department and the Veterans Administration prior to joining CIA.

She had been a personnel officer for the CIA since 1948.

She leaves an aunt, Mrs. Charles O. Heath of Alexandria Bay, N. Y.

Funeral services and burial will be tomorrow in Watertown.